

Panels use non-equivalent units and are not pooled. WTO is an indexed LNG measure; GFW departures and routed voyages are inferred; capacity-distance uses nominal capacity and modeled routes. Cape is context because its historical reference crosses a prior regime change. Importer movements are within-unit: China, Japan, Korea and Taiwan use mass; India (square) uses customs value; EU27 (diamond) is a volume aggregate.