

The locked seven-block partition supports a finite 80% band only; its 90% and 95% block-conformal bands are unbounded. The eight-block packing is a declared partition sensitivity. Descriptive bands are shown for scale, not as confidence intervals.